Dear Mr. Lambert,

You are perceptive and right. That is,-was-David Ferrie. It led to my sooh-to-be- published OSWALD IN NEW ORLEANS, which tells that story. It will be in many local bookstores at about a dollar. It will be $1.50 by mail.

I think you will find the answers to your questions in that book.

That call was undoubtedly prompted by the interest Jim Garrison then had in Ferrie. Over the phone and in the transcribing of the tape, that name came out as Farry, which is the way it seems to have been pronounced in N.O.

Many thanks for taking the trouble to write.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
